Cost Effective Marketing for Real Estate, Venues, Stores, Travel Agencies and Customer Services

Introducing the SOS Guide from Pixaya
Your World in the Palm of their Hands

How Does it Work? Through a combination of existing Advertising and SMS text messaging, the SOS Guide delivers to you the information you need to help target the right person with the right offer.

Direct Advertising: Mobile marketing is the most effective and lowest cost form of direct marketing. You can achieve a huge increase in awareness and a reduction in marketing costs by using the SOS Guide; it's easy to use and Immediate! Send multiple or single messages to the people who have an interest in what you are selling or providing, direct into the palm of their hands.

Live Statistics: Look up who is reading your advertisements and what they are looking at. Analyse their needs and send them the offer you want them to see.

Increased Hit Rate: When you know what your customer wants you have won half the battle; make the offer good enough and the sales will come to you!

The SOS Guide is an adaptable marketing tool that allows you to send any style of marketing campaign direct to your customers mobile device. Whether you are looking to promote a new product launch, communicate with new and existing customers or advertise your range of products & services to potential customers, the SOS Guide guarantees you results.
